

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) - Attendance and Course Monitoring

1. Monitoring Attendance

| Question no. | FAQ's on CourseAttendance and courseprogress   | Actions taken by IIT  | What students are required to do?   |
|------------------|--|---|---|
| Q 1              | Will my attendance berecorded daily on hourlybasis?  | Yes, student's attendance will berecorded daily. AdministrationOfficer will maintain and recordcourse attendance every week on theAttendance tool and submit it to theTraining Manager.Attendance reports will be generatedand analysed weekly and studentswho are not attending classes will beidentified. | You are required to attend yourclasses regularly every day andmaintain satisfactory attendance asper your attendance and courseprogress requirements. |
| Q 2              | Who will be responsiblefor analysing andmonitoring myattendance?                               | IIT's administration department willsummarise and monitor attendancerecord at the end of each week.Training manager and/oradministration department willanalyse the weekly attendance tooland will determine satisfactory andunsatisfactory attendance of studentsevery week.                                   | You are required to attend yourclasses regularly every day andmaintain satisfactory attendance asper your course progressrequirements.                |
| Q 3              | What is satisfactoryattendance?What is the percentage ofattendance that I need tomaintain? | Students are required to maintain a minimum of 80% of attendance to maintain satisfactory attendance.   | You are required to attend all the classes.   |
| Q 4              | What is Unsatisfactoryattendance?  | IIT will regularly monitor attendanceand send warning letters to thestudents. If a student's attendance isat the risk of falling below 80% or hasfallen below 80% or the student hasbeen absent for more than 5consecutive days without approval.This will mean that attendance isunsatisfactory.               | You must attend at least 80 per centof the scheduled course contacthours for each course in which youare enrolled.  |

Version: 3.0

| Q 5 | Will I receive warningletters based on lowattendance requirements? | Yes, IIT's Student Administration willsend low attendance warning lettersto students because low attendancewill lead to unsatisfactory courseprogress which will further lead tostudents being reported to theDepartment of Home Affairs viaPRISMS.   | If you have received low attendancewarning letter, you should contactstudent administration or TrainingManager immediately and discussreasons for low attendance andneed of any support required. Youare required to ensure that youregularly attend your classes andmaintain satisfactory courseprogress so that you are notreported to DHA and you completeyour course within the timeframeas specified in your CoE. |
|-----|--|---|--|
| Q 6 | Will I be reported to DHAbased on low attendance?                      | No, IIT will not report a studentbased on unsatisfactory attendance.However, Low attendance might leadto unsatisfactory course progresswhich will further lead to you beingreported to the Department of HomeAffairs via PRISMS.  | You are required to maintainsatisfactory attendance in order tomaintain satisfactory courseprogress requirements.  |
| Q 7 | What should I do afterreceiving low attendanceletter?              | IIT's student administration willcontact you. Training Manager orrepresentative will meet you anddiscuss intervention strategies whichcan be implemented to assist you tomaintain satisfactory attendance andachieve satisfactory course progress.  | You are required to contact theauthorised person in StudentAdministration or TrainingManager within 5 days of receivingthe letter or as soon as possible.You must discuss the reasons foryour absence, what were thecircumstances and if you requireany intervention strategy.   |
| Q 8 | Do I need to apply for RPLon the basis of lowattendance?           | Yes, according to the attendancerequirements of ASQA, if an overseasstudent is not attending scheduledclasses, but is making satisfactoryprogress in their course, then thecourse duration set may not besuitable for that student—becausethey must already have the skills,knowledge and experience toprogress in their course withoutreceiving structured training.In this case, International Institute of | You are required to meet theconcerned person* in studentadministration.*As at reception  |
|     |  | Training may invite student to applyfor RPL and may reduce the duration   |  |

| duration required given the student'sexisting skills and knowledge, whilemaintaining a minimum of 20scheduled course contact hours perweek. |
|---|
|---|

2. Monitoring Course progress

| Question no. | FAQ's on Courseprogress  | Actions taken by IIT   | What students are required to do?   |
|------------------|--|--|---|
| Q 1              | What is satisfactorycourse progress?   | Satisfactory course progress implies that astudent is successful in completing ordemonstrating competency in at least 50%of the units in any study period to achieveminimum competency level.  | You are required to maintainsatisfactory course progress i.e. besuccessful in demonstratingcompetency in at least 50 % of theunits in any study period of thestudies. |
| Q 2              | What isUnsatisfactorycourse progress?  | Unsatisfactory progress is defined as notsuccessfully completing or demonstratingcompetency in at least 50% of the units inany study period.   | You are required to attend all theclasses so that you are aware aboutthe teachings and assessmentswhich will help you to maintainsatisfactory course progress.            |
| Q 3              | What is studyperiod?   | For IIT's study period is 15-24 weeks (for one term)   |   |
| Q 4              | How and when willthe course progressbe monitored?                            | Course progress will be monitored based onthe assessments and your results in theseassessments will determine satisfactorycourse progress.   | You are required to attend all yourclasses regularly so that you canmaintain satisfactory courseprogress.   |
| Q 5              | Who will beresponsible foranalysing andmonitoring mycourse progress? | IIT's administration staff and TrainingManager will analyse and monitor yourcourse progress. Training Manager willconsult with the administration staff anddetermine satisfactory and unsatisfactorycourse progress of students for every studyperiod. | You are required to attend yourclasses regularly every day so thatyou can maintain satisfactorycourse progress.   |

| Q 6 | Will I receivewarning lettersbased on lowcourse progressrequirements? | Yes, IIT's student's administration will sendyou warning letters.Notification Letter: IIT will inform studentsif they are at risk of showing unsatisfactorycourse progress for the first study periodand thereby breaching their students' visarequirements.1 st warning letter: IIT will inform studentsthat their course progress is unsatisfactoryi.e. not demonstrating competency in atleast 50% of the units in the first studyperiod. If it continues to fall, it will lead tounsatisfactory course progress for thesecond consecutive study period* whichwill ultimately lead to not meetingsatisfactory course progress requirements.2 nd Warning letter: If student continues toshow unsatisfactory course progress evenafter sending 2 warning letters and afterimplementing intervention strategy. IIT willsend 2 nd warning letter indicating that theyare still at the risk of not makingsatisfactory course progress for the secondconsecutive study period and that thestudent will be reported to the Departmentof Home Affairs via PRISMS if they continueto be at risk even after followingintervention strategy.Intention to report: IIT will inform studentsabout their failure to meet satisfactorycourse progress requirements. Upon which,IIT will be required to report student'sunsatisfactory course progress to theDepartment of Home Affairs (DHA) viaPRISMS. | You may be invited to meet RTOTraining Manager or studentadministration to discuss anyissues that you might be having andto offer support services afterreceiving notification letterYou are required to meet studentadministration to discuss furtherupon this, so that interventionstrategies can be implemented andsupport can be provided afterreceiving 1 st or 2 nd warning letter.If course progress is unsatisfactorydespite 2 nd warning letter, and afterimplementation of interventionstrategy, then you will be reportedto DHA via PRISMS that you are atrisk of breaching your student visarequirements after 20 workingdays of receiving Intention toreport letter. |
|-----|---|---|--|
|     |   |   |  |

| Q 6. | Will I be reportedto DHA based onunsatisfactorycourse progress?                  | Yes, as mentioned above, students will bereported to the Department of Home Affairs(DHA) via PRISMS based on unsatisfactorycourse progress for two consecutive studyperiods after 20 working days of receivingIntention to report letter.   | You are required to maintainsatisfactory course progressrequirements.You have the right to lodgecomplaints and appeals within 20working days by using IIT'scomplaints and appeals policy ifyou believe your course progress issatisfactory.   |
|------|--|---|---|
| Q 7. | What should I doafter receiving 1 stor 2 nd warningletter? | Students are required to meet TrainingManager within 5 days of receiving theletter. IIT will implement interventionstrategies and provide support to thestudents.If students believe that they havemaintained satisfactory course progressand attendance, then IIT will advise thestudents about their right to lodgecomplaints and appeals within 20 workingdays by using IIT's complaints and appealspolicy available on IIT's website. | You are required to contact andmeet the Training Manager orStudent Support Officer in studentadministration within 5 days ofreceiving the letter or as soon aspossible.You also have the right to lodge anappeal.   |
| Q 8  | What is complaintsand Appeals andhow does it work?                                   | IIT has implemented complaints andappeals policy for students.Detailed process and procedures on thecomplaints and appeals policy is availableon website of IIT.www.iitraining.vic.edu.au   | You can refer to internal appealsprocess within 20 working days ofreceiving the intention to reportletter. If you are not satisfied withthe internal appeals process, thenyou can lodge an external appealprocess though CommonwealthOmbudsman (refer Q9).*Refer to detailed Compliant andAppeals Policy and Proceduresavailable on the IIT's website orstudent's handbook. |
| Q 9  | What isCommonwealthOmbudsman?  | IIT will advise students to refer toCommonwealth Ombudsman to lodge anexternal appeal or complain about thedecision. The Commonwealth Ombudsmanoffers free and independent service foroverseas students who have a complaint orwant to lodge an external appeal about adecision made by their private education ortraining provider.  | You can refer to CommonwealthOmbudsman which offers free andindependent service for overseasstudents. Refer to the link below:(https://www.ombudsman.gov.au/How-we-can-help/overseas-students)  |

Version: 3.0

| Q 10 | Will my enrolmentstay active duringcomplaints andAppeal process?   | Yes, Student's enrolment will be kept activeuntil both internal and external appealsprocess have been completed.  | Your enrolment will be kept activeuntil both the internal and externalappeals process have beencompleted. |
|------|--|---|---|
| Q 11 | At what last stagewill I be reportedto the Departmentof Home Affairs?andWhat will be theafter affects? | <ul> <li>IIT will report student on the basis ofunsatisfactory course progress to DHA viaPRISMS, if:</li> <li>the internal and external complaintsprocesses have been completed and thedecision or recommendation supportsthe IIT's decision, or</li> <li>the student has chosen not to access theinternal complaints and appealsprocess within the 20-working dayperiod, or</li> <li>the student has chosen not to access theexternal complaints and appealsprocess,</li> <li>the student withdraws from theinternal or external appeals processesby notifying IIT in writing.</li> <li>Student's CoE will be cancelled in the end.</li> <li>Students will be given a warning letter"Intention to report" before reporting thestudents.</li> </ul> | Your Condition of Enrolment (CoE)will be cancelled which was givento you by the Institute.                    |